

ANURA

ELECTRONIC PRESS KIT / 2026

Instrumental music shaped by motion, atmosphere and weight.

ABOUT

ANURA is an instrumental band from Mannheim, with not only one, not two, but three guitar players. Why? Because we couldn't find a fourth one.

Somewhere between progressive rock, metal, atmospheric textures and the occasional questionable time signature, ANURA makes instrumental music shaped by motion, atmosphere and weight. Melodic when it wants to be, heavy when it needs to be - and hopefully never too concerned with showing off.

For everyone who likes Plini, but doesn't need every note to have a university degree.

CURRENT STATUS

Writing, recording and figuring out what to do with three guitar players.

MUSIC

Unelectric Moonfall (Demo)

Layers (Demo)

Synthwave (Demo)

Selected demos and current material are available through the ANURA website.
